

ROYAL ORDER NO. 2025-004

AN ORDER ESTABLISHING THE COMMISSION FOR CULTURE, HERITAGE, AND NATIONAL IDENTITY, DEFINING ITS FUNCTIONS, AND PROVIDING FOR ITS LEADERSHIP AND TRANSITIONAL ASSUMPTION OF RESPONSIBILITIES

WHEREAS, Article I, Section 1 of The Constitution of The Principality of Hixolram establishes the Principality as a sovereign and independent constitutional monarchy founded upon the principles of liberty, justice, and the collective well-being of its people;

WHEREAS, Article II, Section 8 of the Constitution empowers the Prince, as Chief Executive, to form, organize, and dissolve necessary departments to cater to the needs of the people;

WHEREAS, the preservation, promotion, and development of the Principality's unique culture, rich traditions, and significant historical narratives are paramount to fostering a strong and unified national identity;

WHEREAS, the active promotion of Hixolram's national identity, both internally among its citizens and externally to the global community, is vital for civic cohesion, international recognition, and the overall flourishing of the Principality;

NOW, THEREFORE,

I, Himosus I, Prince of The Principality of Hixolram, by virtue of the authority vested in me by The Constitution of The Principality of Hixolram, do hereby order and promulgate the following:

Article I: Establishment of the Commission

Section 1 There is hereby created, as a direct branch of the Office of the Prince, the Commission for Culture, Heritage, and National Identity (CCHNI), hereinafter referred to as "the Commission."

Section 2 The Commission shall serve as the central governmental body responsible for the preservation, promotion, and development of The Principality of Hixolram's distinct national identity through its culture, traditions, historical narratives, and artistic expressions, both within the Principality and on the international stage.

Article II: Powers and Functions

- Section 1 The Commission shall have the following powers and functions:
- (a) To formulate and recommend policies, programs, and projects for the preservation, promotion, and development of Hixolram's national culture, traditions, and historical narratives.
 - (b) To develop and implement educational initiatives and public awareness campaigns aimed at fostering a deep understanding and appreciation of Hixolram's national identity among its citizens.
 - (c) To organize and support national cultural events, celebrations, and artistic endeavors that reflect and enhance the Principality's heritage.
 - (d) To establish and maintain comprehensive archives of historical records, cultural artifacts, and traditional knowledge pertinent to The Principality of Hixolram.
 - (e) To promote Hixolram's unique cultural heritage and national identity internationally through various platforms, including cultural exchange programs and digital outreach.
 - (f) To conduct research into the history, folklore, and cultural practices of the Principality and its people.
 - (g) To advise the Prince and other governmental bodies on matters pertaining to national identity, cultural policy, and heritage preservation.

Article III: Leadership of the Commission

- Section 1 The Commission shall be headed by a Commissioner, who shall be appointed by the Prince. The Commissioner shall serve as the principal officer of the Commission and shall report directly to the Prince, responsible for its overall administration and operations within the Prince's Office.
- Section 2 The Commissioner shall be a citizen of The Principality of Hixolram, possess demonstrated expertise in cultural studies, history, arts, heritage management, public administration, or related fields, and exhibit a high degree of integrity and commitment to public service.

- Section 3 The Commissioner shall:
- (a) Exercise direct supervision and control over all personnel, functions, and operations of the Commission.
 - (b) Formulate and recommend policies, rules, and regulations necessary for the effective implementation of the Commission's mandate.
 - (c) Represent the Commission in official capacities, both domestically and internationally, as authorized by the Prince.
 - (d) Submit regular reports on the Commission's activities, performance, and financial status to the Prince and, upon full establishment of the legislative branch, to the National Assembly.

Article IV: Transitional Provisions

- Section 1 During the transitional governance period, as outlined in Article XVIII of The Constitution of The Principality of Hixolram, the responsibilities and functions herein assigned to the Commission for Culture, Heritage, and National Identity shall remain under the direct purview and exercise of the Prince.
- Section 2 The Commissioner and the Commission for Culture, Heritage, and National Identity shall fully assume all powers and functions stipulated in Article II of this Royal Order upon the complete implementation of the permanent governmental institutions, specifically when the National Assembly and the Supreme Court are fully seated as described in Article XVII, Section 4 of the Constitution. Until such time, the Commission shall operate in a preparatory and supportive capacity under the Prince's direct guidance.

Article V: Effectivity

Section 1 This Royal Order shall take effect immediately upon its issuance and signing.

ISSUED this 1st day of August, 2025, in The Principality of Hixolram.

PRINCE HIMOSUS I
The Principality of Hixolram

ATTESTED this 1st day of August, 2025, with the Seal of the Principality:
